Overview:

Founded in 1977, the Indo-Canada Chamber of Commerce (ICCC) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization. Our programs and policies foster individual initiative, and the ability of members to make a significant contribution to the economic, cultural and social fabric of Canada.

Mission:

The ICCC's mission is to be the premier, privately funded, Indo-Canadian business organization in Canada by:

- Promoting the business, professional, and general well being of Indo-Canadians
- Creating positive awareness of the high degree of contribution of the Indo-Canadian business and professional community.
- Facilitating business and trade opportunities between Canada and India, and the Indian diaspora throughout the world.

The ICCC's objectives are to:

- Provide members with a forum for networking, sharing ideas, information and experiences in order to promote mutual business success.
- Create learning opportunities through seminars, workshops and conferences.
- Foster international commerce between Canada, the Indian sub-continent and other countries around the world by creating relationships and links with global business organizations
- Publicly recognize the achievements of business and community leaders at our Annual Awards and Gala Night.

Our programming includes:

- Business and professional seminars with prominent speakers in the areas of finance, investments, international business and trade, information technology, and public policy.
- Hosting Indian trade delegations and senior political and business leaders
- Seasonal social gatherings including the Summer Boat Cruise and the Holiday Dinner and Dance.
- An Annual Awards and Gala Night that publicly recognizes achievements in the community. The awards honour outstanding individuals in the following categories: Professional Man of the Year; Professional Woman of the Year; Business Man of the Year; Business Woman of the Year; Humanitarian of the Year; Youth Achievement, Technology Achievement; Lifetime/Outstanding Achievement; Member of the Year; and Presidents Award.
- An annual General Meeting where the year is reviewed, and the Board of Directors is elected.

Organizational Structure:

- The Indo-Canada Chamber of Commerce is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of thirteen Directors.
Nine Directors are elected at the Annual General Meeting, and four Directors are appointed by the Board from various nominations received.
- An Executive Committee is elected within the Board, consisting of the President and four Vice Presidents.
- The ICCC Board of Directors is also aided by an Advisory Board, consisting of 11 seasoned business and professional leaders from within the community.

Membership:

Membership is open to any person who is in agreement with the objectives of the ICCC. The present membership consists of approximately 850 members representing a wide range of industries and professions.

The benefits of joining the ICCC include:

- Professional and personal development through business and social networking.
